Dear Judge Alexander,

I would like to take this opportunity to let you know how very grateful I am that you allowed my son Anthony Bucci to be released into my custody. In the past several months, he has been seeking counseling and has been attending meetings on a regular basis to help him fight the battle of addiction. Anthony has been adhering to all the stipulations outlined by the pre-trial officers and is doing very well.

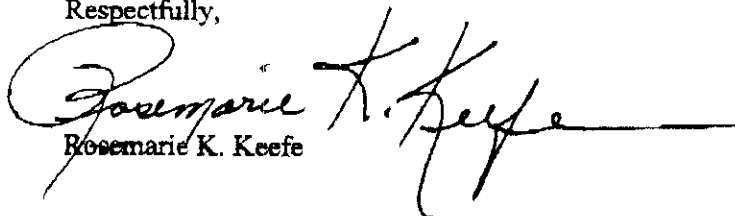

As you know, Anthony has not been allowed out to work and earn a living for himself and his family. As you can imagine, this has created a huge financial burden for the entire family. I am totally convinced of my son's innocence and believe, in this country, one is innocent until proven guilty beyond a reasonable doubt. However, how does one prove their innocence unless they are able to earn the money to hire the best defense they can afford?

Anthony and I have had to sell most of our assets and have depleted our savings accounts. I personally have borrowed to the fullest against the equity on my condominium in order to help my son and his family. Due to my age and failing health, I am unable to seek employment and rely solely on my social security benefits and small pension for my income.

I am at this time requesting a change of address for Anthony and myself. I ask that we both be allowed to move to his house in Wakefield. This move will make it possible for me to rent my condominium. My girlfriend is anxious to rent my unit and this move will generate some much needed income. I fully understand that I will continue to be Anthony's third party custodian and expect to follow the guidelines previously outlined by the court.

Thank you.

Respectfully,

Rosemarie K. Keefe
